HALL OF FAME

Publicity Committee Indorses Ernest Thompson-Seton's Plan to Honor Louisiana Pioneers.

BUSTS FOR ART BUILDING.

Eminent Writer on Wild Animals Will Publish Series of Articles on Men Who Won the West.

A suggestion by Ernest Thompson-Seton the noted writer on wild animals, that the World's Fair management establish a permanent Hall of Fame, to contain the busts of the fifty heroes of the West, was indorsed yesterday by the Committee on Pub-

The matter was then referred to Directo of Works Taylor, Karl Bitter, Chief of of the cost of the busts. A conference will be had to-day with Director of Exhibits Skiff and Chief Ives of Fine Arts regarding the use of the nave of the Art building as the Hall of Fame.

Coincident with the preparation and in-Coincident with the preparation add installation of these busts, Mr. Seton, without cost to the Exposition, will publish in leading American magazines a series of articles treating separately each one of the heroes, thus directing attention to the object of the Hall of Fame, while he tells of the winning of the Louisiana wilderness. FIFTEEN YEARS GETTING MATERIAL Material for this history, Mr. Seton says, he has been gathering for fifteen years, both in European libraries and from the lips of men now dead, old men, both red and white, who either took part in the great drama which the Exposition is to celebrate, or whose ancestors bequeathed to them a century's lore or "Louisiana." He has proposed a national voting contest to decide who are the fifty men worthy of being placed in the Hall of Fame. The publicity resulting from the controversy over the National Hall of Fame, two years ago, has been suggested as a fair example of the free advertising the Exposition might receive from this feature.

In his written offer to the Exposition management regarding the matter, he intended to use, Mr. Seton says that he will begin with Coronado, De Soto and the Spaniards, on the South; then include the Frenchmen, Verandrye, Du Loth, Le Salle, Hennepin, Marquette, Des Molnes and others, on the North; then Bowie, Boone, Bridger, Beckwourth, Breckinridge, Crockett, Carson, Clark, Fremont, Pike, Brigham Young and the English pioneers on the East. stallation of these busts, Mr. Seton, with-ham Young and the English pioneers on the East.

With these separate articles on each hero. Mr. Seton has agreed to publish a series of facsimilies of the contemporary Spanish, French and English maps, compiled from their reports. He says that he has in his possession maps of highest interest and historical value, which have never been published. Others within his knowledge are stored away in the archives of Paris and Madrid and have never been given to the public. Hitherto unpublished and authentic portraits of these heroes will be included in the magazine articles.

NOTHING EQUAL IN HISTORY.

"We look in valn. over the history of the world, in the Nineteenth Century for an event that equals in importance this, the great drama that your fair is to celebrate," says Mr. Seton, "a drama that will be officially completed when Arisona and New Mexico are admitted to full statehood.

"It is only because this revolution had dragged out over ten decades that we have hitherto viewed it with so little demonstration.

"But whether Considered to the product of the constration.

"But whether considered to its amount of fertile territory transferred for the extent of the resources put at the service of mankind, for the number of the beings whose welfare was involved or for the heroism of both sides in the struggle, we are bound to give it first place as the great event of the Nineteenth Century; and its most suitable monument, I think, would be a record of the heroes who won the fight and added this Great West to the white man's domain."

Mr. Beton's plan was presented to the Ex-

It was Mr. Seton's original plan to publish his material as a "History of the Winning of the West," but he was induced to make use of it to atimulate popular interest and educate the public to the historical importance of the Exposition.

COLORADO TO MAKE THREE GIFTS Gold Souvenirs for Roosevelt, Loubet and Francis.

Crippie Creek, Colo., March 30.—A feature of the dedicatory exercises of the St. Louis World's Fair will be the presentation by the Colorado State Board of Commissioners of three solid gold souventr medals, one to Theodore Roosevelt. President of the United States; a second to Emile Loubet President of France, and the third to President David R. Francis of the World's Fair. The presentation will be made on April 30.
Gold for the three souvenirs was contributed by a Crippie Creek mine. On one side the gold souvenirs will bear bas reliefs of Jefferson and Napoleon.
The design on the obverse side consists of a horseshoe, which, with its interwoven scroll, forms the monogram "U. S." This monogram is incircided by fourteen stars, representing the States and Territories of the Louisians Purchase.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL.

Washington, March 30.—Milton Brown of the Treasury Department, accredited representative of Chief Clerk Hills of that department, will depart for the World's Fair City Wednesday on business with the Exposition Commany. Mr. Brown is connected with the Life-Saving Bureau and goes to St. Louis to secure suitable accommodations and facilities for the proposed delly life-saving. The department has always heretofore found it difficult to procure suitable facilities for this exhibit, but hopes to have no such trouble in locating at St. Louis.

Kalser Receives Doctor Lewald. Berlin, March 20.—Emperor William to-day received in audience Doctor Lewald, the Commissioner of Germany to the St. Louis Exposition, and Professor Bruno Schmitz, the architect, for the purpose of inspecting the plans for the German build-ing at St. Louis. Doctor Lewald and Pro-fessor Schmits will start for St. Louis in a fortnight. The Emperor asked Doctor Le-wald many questions concerning the Ger-man exhibit and made a number of sug-restions.

OFFICIALS FEAR DISTURBANCE.

Dewey Incident Closed but for Excited Comment in Berlin.

Washington, March 20.—In Cabinet and naval circles the opinion is expressed to-day that the Dewey incident is closed, but the excited comments of the Berlin newspapers are viewed with some uneasiness lest they should cause such a strong expression of hostile sentiment to the United States as would force the German Emperor to call for an explanation.

Certainly no such explanation has yet been called for. Baron Sternberg, it is believed, has advised that no notice whatever be taken of the Admira's remarks. Recently friendly expressions have passed between President Roosevelt and the Ger-man Emperor, the President expressing sin-taken identity, if in fact it is such, that has come to the attention of Morgue Superintendent Cowie, is that of a man whos body is at the morgue.

Chas. C. Goza, a salesman for the Meyer Bros. Drug Company, who lives in Ma-plewood, Friday afternoon called at the morgue and identified the body of a man who had died from injuries sustained in a street-car accident at Garrison and Easte avenues as that of his father, Walter S.

short time when Mrs. Mary Cotton of No. 5 Bouth Second street entered. The body be seen through the windows. She had seen it and at once declared that it was that of Walter S. Goza.

"I have known Mr. Goza for many years and cannot be mistaken." said Mrs. Cotton to Superintendent Cowie, "but, to make sure, you should telephone to his son, Chas. Goza." POSITIVE BODY IS HIS FATHER'S.

POSITIVE BODY IS HIS FATHER'S.

Superintendent Cowie lost no time in notifying Mr. Goza and he appeared at the morgue in a few minutes.

"Yes, that is my father," he said, after viewing the body, "but I did not know that he was in St. Louis."

On the right side of the nose of the man whose body lay on the slab is a mole. On the right side of the jaw is a scar. Both Mrs. Cotton and Goza identified the body as that of Weiter S. Goza by these marks, as well as the features. The son said his father received the scar in an explosion.

Charles Goza had not seen his father for eight years, but Mrs. Cotton saw him not more than a year ago. The son at once made arrangements to have the body removed, and Undertaker John P. Collins took charge of it.

Then, going to a telegraph office. Charles Goza sent a message to his mother, notifying her of the death. He was assonished when a reply came Saturday, stating that his father was at their home in Amiston. Ala., and well.

Still believing he could not be mistaken in the identification Goza sent other messages. To these he received no reply. Tels perplexed him more, as he has many rela-

The New Mohairs

F

Mohair Siciliennes and Brilliantines are out this season in an entirely new form-of course there is a liberal showing of the plain weaves, but the fancy novelty weaves are the ones that have called forth the enthusiasm of Parislennes and Paris dressmakers.

Are being shown by this store in great profusion.

Some reproduce the patterns of other wool fabrics-some are in blue and black grounds threaded with white; mohair pointelles, striped mohairs, mohairs figured with very small designs and polka spots-then a great showing of plain mobairs and Siciliennes in all colors and black.

There are other reasons why you should buy these cloths besides the appeal of the new styles and the fact that they are in the mode-the fine wearing qualities, the silken appearance, appeal to every onethey stand hard and rough wear and look better longer than most any other tabric. They shed dust and water with equal indifference.

We want to impress upon your mind reasons for an early selectionwhile our representation of these desirable cloths is very complete, we predict heavy buying will soon deplete the line.

Mohairs are becoming scarcer in the market-first it was creams that were scarce, then cream and blacks, now it is the whole line. This store—your store—stands ready to serve you with the most beautiful collection of the most desirable styles-Come, see them—the price range a yard is..........50c to $2.50

William Meyer. Price $2.00.

tives at Anniston. He then called upon Chief of Police Kiely and requested him to send a message to the Chief at Anniston. Further periexity came when the Chief at Anniston replied that Walter S. Goza was there.

RETURNED TO THE MORGUE.

Goza, however, instructed Undertaker Collins to keep the body until yesterday. Meanwhile, he and Mrs. Cotton discussed the matter. Both were unshaken in their belief that they had made no mistake in the identification. Goza's wife had never seen her father-in-law, and could not assist them. "Why, if from nothing else, I would identify the body as that of your father from the resemblance between you." declared Mrs. Cotton. "Then, too, I am sure there can be no mistake, for I have often noticed the scar on his jaw and the mole at the side of his nore.

Goza agreed with her, but still there were the telegrams.

Unable to clear the matter up in any other way. Goza prepared last night to depart for Anniston to see for himself if his father is there.

"In no other way will I ever be able to satisfy myself that this man is not my father." he declared to Superintendent. Cowie. "I have often heard that every man has a double. If this man is not my father it surely is his double. I shall leave no stone unturned to decided it."

MARKED RESEMBLANCE RETURNED TO THE MORGUI

MARKED RESEMBLANCE

BETWEEN TWO.

Morgue Keeper Cowie also noticed the re-semblance to the dead man in Goza. Goza also showed him photographs of his father on which the mole on the side of the nose could be seen. The resemblance was so startling that Cowie is as positive as Goza that the dead man is his father. The body will be kept at the morgue until Goza can reach Anniston and settle the matter.
